

AURORAN 1949

Editor Helen Richman depended on her fellow Quill and Scroll members for much help in the production of this 1949 yearbook. They helped to make the Auroran wheels go around with a merry click. Seated from left to right are Helen Richman, editor, Doreen Henke, her senior assistant, Francene Glatstein, advertising manager, and Mary Boese, feature writer and typist. Quill and Scroll is an international honorary journalistic society for high school journalists.

Helen Richman

MUSCATINE HIGH SCHOOL Muscatine, Iowa

My Purpose ...

I am Helen Richman, editor of the 1949 AURO-RAN. My purpose in this book is to describe in picture and story the various happenings of the school year, some serious and some otherwise.

For the first portion of the book, I have chosen pictures representing the different types of classes and activities. Musky teachers co-operated by selecting the students and arranging the pictures. Next I have presented the students receiving the various honors bestowed by Musky High, with the exception of those receiving appointment to Quill and Scroll, the honorary journalistic society. This group appears in the frontispiece.

In the third section I have included all the student groups of M.H.S., and, of course, in this division the seniors come first. In the last section I have placed advertisements of the Musky supporters and some records of interest to the Musky fans. In various parts of this section students will find data about the graduating seniors.

My Co-Workers...

My task would have been impossible without help from my co-workers. Doreen Henke was my right-hand helper. Her help ranged from writing copy and headlines to going after the much needed evening lunch. Mary Boese provided much gayety and fun, as well as nimble fingers for typing. Frankie Glatstein was a good provider. She sold even more than her allotted number of pages of advertising. Kay Swickard and Margaret Ann Siemers were her excellent junior assistants. Other staff members who made their aid a valuable contribution were Darrell Hopkins, Don Walter, and Larry Miller, juniors, and Suzanne Stevens and Patty Fuller, sophomores.

Much of the credit for the informal pictures goes to Robert Bauer, circulation manager of the Muscatine Journal. Chamberlin's Studio took the formal pictures, and Jahn and Ollier of Chicago did the engraving. The Economy Advertising Company of Iowa City were the printers of the book. That company also made the lithograph for the end sheet.

AURORAN work is never done. Hopefully Kay Swickard and Marg Siemers fitted ads in the newspaper dummy. Frankie Glatstein worked on the yearbook dummy, sharing a desk with Al Watson, who recorded contracts as Florence Easterday read them. Joan Borgstadt (left), Margaret Curry, and Doreen Henke searched through drawers for missing copy. "Money, money everywhere!" Suzanne Stevens (top), Pat Fuller, and Norma Dollman picked up $25 in small change.

Larry Miller recenters bessed Darr II Floplars. Telt imistreachtening a crooked picture. Don Walter found that he had cut F. G. Messenger's picture a bit slanting. All s not work for the Musky band. Mary Alice Hoopes had fun riding behind Bob Jenes on a bicycle. Loretta Wyckoff (left) Eileen Sohn, and Regina Fath took time to gossip while getting ready to play in the band. Barbara Whitmer (left) and Kathryn Weber went off by themselves so Barb could toot on her French horn and Kathy on a clarinet. The long and short of it was the way it looked when the Crow twins and Bob Lawler got together.

Marge Lewis had some trouble tymo her tie and if Jim Torrence had not come to the resease she probably would have given up hope. Jerry Newton, Jetti was almost a one man band. Bill Jacobs joined him in turning out some hot music to a boogie beat. Diane Odell, Jetti blew a mellow note on the clarinet to keep Warren brochner company while he practiced. Janet Rummells consulted Max Smith, band director, about a new music score.

Debaters trooped to Dak Stanley's playroom for a night of fun. Go rac Webster and Dick Stanley hatted Jim Mckanney and Jerry Miller eleft to right on blowing a ping pong ball on a table Ronnie Brooknart watched while satisfying his hunger but Jim Hillier turned his back. Ruthellen Soltwedel Jeft) and Kathleen Ratledge tackled the problem of putting a puzzle together. Pack op sticks gave Dick Petry. Jeft) and Jim Hillier entertainment.

In between games. Dick Stanley took time out to wax his skis. Ronald Brookhart was forced to leave the merrymaking to retrieve his carefully prepared debate notes scattered over the floor and unscramble them, a process which was slow. Chess games provide concentrated diversion. Ed. Knott left of build himself in a fix and was at a loss as to a way out when he attempted a game. George Webster, with a sly look, got ready to pounce on his victim.

Basketball games were not contined to just the nights the Schnackmen played. Intramural games provided interest and tun for Muskies at noon when the intramural teams took to the hard court in quest of victories. The camera stopped's me action in a typical fray under the basket as Virgil Hamer and Ivan Cochran (right) battled for the ball. Awaiting the outcome of the tussle were (left to right) Kenny Phelps. John Phillips. Neil Fitzmorris, and Eddie Stark.

Girls as well as boys had noon-hour games. Volleyball came first. The honorary team were (left to right): Joan Kracht, Betty Berry, Marilyn Greenwald, Della Varney, Charlotte Graham, Mary Boese, and Pat Hoffman. Norma Doak (left) and Opal Frankenberry jumped for the ball in a basketball game, and Glenna Buster stood ready in the background. Mary Ann Yarek, Ros, no Stark, and Pat Ridge eleft to right, back it fund in the tell tale chant. They all tried their best to make it come out right.

Football dressing rooms are scenes of many wrestling matches. Mary Hoeksema was a victim of one, and all the tactics learned playing tackle were of no use. Jake Phelps, Bob Jones, and Bill Johnson attacked one side with John Phillips at the head and Lenuel Massey. I his Hahn, and Bill Starms (left to right) helping on the other side. The intentions of Harlan Phillips were unknown but Mary had reason to think he would take a flying leap.

In any sport teamwork is essential and Musky gridders showed their willingness to co-operate as Bill Sturms (78) and an unidentified Musky put the clamp on a Washington Demon. Kenny Riswold (85) came up on the play to give aid. Harlan Phillips stopped a Keokuk tackler for Gary Gordy (89) toting the pigskin around end. Trailing the play in hopes of escorting Gary to the goal line were Don Marine (left) and Bill Johnson.

The success of a football team comes from the drive and determination of the players. In the season's opener at Davenport's Municipal Stadium, Bill Sturms, Musky co-captain and all-conference back fought for a few extra yards for the Muskies before being hauled to a standstill by a St. Ambrose tackler. However, Bill made a number of spectacular runs before the season drew to a close. St. Ambrose won the battle 25.0.

Action is always at its peak when the Maskies meet the Blue Devils from Davenport, and this year was no exception. Jake Phelps cright, and Ken Buckles. Davenport, conceived identical ideas of capturing the ball. The Blue Devils won the clash 59–42. Bob Herwig uncorked an attempt good for two points that aided in downing the Mt. Pleasant Panthers. Jerry Grady (3). Jake Phelps (10) and Tom Johnson. 151 awaited the possible rebound.

Whenever any Muscatane athletes decide to do something they go all the way or as near as it is humanly possible. Seemingly having sprouted wings after cluding a Fairfield defender, the Musky captain and all conference guard. Jake Phelps, boosted a pair of counters through the hoop to help the Old Gold quintet down the Trojans in their second conference game of the season. The Muskies won the game with the score 45–27.

Throughout the season. Musky basketball players evidently had a liking for upper atmosphere Jerry Grady, Purple and Gold forward, snatched a rebound and prevented it from falling into the hands of a cluster of Mt. Pleasant Panthers. The Muskies make it two straight over the Panthers for the '48-'49 season by dumping them in their second meeting thus helping to bring about second place honors in the conference for Muscatine.

Thrills and action were at a fever pitch whenever the Muskics took to the court, but excitement was at its peak when the Old Gold entertained the Burlington Grayhounds. Soaring past a Burlington defender, George Hahn, Musky guard, racked a brace of points to aid the Muscatine quintet in slipping past Burlington in a double overtime thriller 47. 45. Tom Johnson (15) eagerly waited a possible chance to rebound

A balmy spring atternoon (1945 season) found Musky track members taking their work out on Jefferson Field. Don Mills wound up for what he hoped would be a good heave in the discus throw. Ready to record his efforts was Skip Weber, assistant track coach. Clearing the first obstacle in the 120-yard high hurdles was Paul Stumme, Musky hurdler. This bit of action took place during the Muscatine-Reynolds-West Liberty meet.

Musky athletes always go all-out in their efforts to bring back a victory. Paul Stumme gave proof of this fact as he strained to clear the bar in the high jump in the 1948 Muscatine West Liberty Rey nolds triangular. Snapping the tape. Jerry Phelps nipped Bill Johnson at the finish line in a photo finish of the hundred-yard dash in the Muscatine-West Liberty Reynolds triangular. The Muskies swamped their opponents to turn in a victory.

A baseball program was mangurated at Musky High last summer, and enthusiasm rose to such a fever pitch that baseball is planned again for this summer. Although Muscatine didn't have a very successful season in repard to their wins and losses, the players picked up valuable experience. Pictured above is Harlan Phillips as he skidded safely into third base in the Burlington-Muscatine game. Too late to hab a sliding Et. Madisonite. Bob Berry caught a high throw

Musky Honors...

He nots to Maskies were special rewards in scholarship and elections. Perhaps the honor boked forward to most by seniors was that of being elected representative beyor girl. The entire student body selected the representative boy and garl on the basis of service to the school and scholastic attainment evidenced by ranking in the upper third of the class. Of course the highest scholastic honors, caledictorian and salutatorian, went to the seniors who had the highest point averages figured in the basis of four points for an All three points for a Bl two points for a Cland one point for a D. Twenty-four seniors in the class of 49 had a three-point average or better Apparently the advice of senior boys to freshman boys would be to consider grades more scriously. Proof of this feeling is the fact that only three senior boys made a three-point average, and a number missed the honor because of low freshman grades.

Even in high school years boys seem to convince girls that they are better suited to hold jobs. This year out of twelve class officers only four were girls.

Every year since 1938 the Bill R ach trophy has been a coveted award given in memory of Bill R ach. This trophy award is presented each year to a boy who has been selected for being outstanding in sportsmanship, leader-ship, perseverance, and school spirit. Also another of the top athletic honors was selection as team captain.

MATS has its royalty too and many senior girls, when the last football game rolled around, wished they could be Homecoming Queen for 1948. The student body elected the Queen after the senior class chose five candidates. The four remaining candidates acted as the Queen's attendants.

The homemaking department spensor dethe Fun Festivel lover which reigned the Homemaking King and Queen. Each homemaking class selected a bey and girl tor candidates, and then the girls set up voting booths in the halls. They sold votes for a penny each.

In this section are the students selected for these various honors during the school year.

Evelyn Hoopes and Bob Herwig received the top honer awarded by the students in Museatine High School selection as representative senior how and girl. Evelyn is familiar to Musky athletic tans having been a cheerleader for two years. Bob's specialty is basketball. He was a forward on the 1949 squid which placed second in the Little Six Conference. Both of these seniors have self-listic averages of over three points.

Ready and waiting for their escerts to that all important June'r Senior Prom were Maralyn Zoller (left), salutatorian, and Donna Eichelberger, valedictorian, well, not quite ready because Donna's flower was a little bit crooked in Marilyn's estimation. Murilyn was accompanist for chorus and sang a number of solos. She also played organ music for morning devotions. Donna could be seen almost any time working in the office.

These new tangled instruments that are in use nowadive are very complicated. The other switch board is one of these intricate affairs if one is mexperie ced in its ways. Many Ann Yurck senior secretary-treasurer, found this true when she started messing around with the switches and wires Laughing at her efforts and making no attempt to help a fellow officer were Jerry Phelps, president and Bob Herwig, vice-president.

Al Watson (center) junior class president held the cookie jar for his tellow officers. Fom Johnson (left) secretary-treasurer and George Hahn vice-president. Tom was evidently atraid he wouldn't get his share at the tast diminishing supply of cockies. George with both hands full laughed at Tom's well-based tear. Even though he held the jar in one hand. Al wasn't robbed of his share and he didn't seem worried that he would be.

Muskies take time out from their work for many hebbas and pastimes. The sophomore class officers decided to make a scrapbook by which to remember their MHS days. Immie Sturms Telta sceretary treasurer, cut the desired clippings, giving them to President Bob Berry to look over and ok. The remaining 16 h fell to Marilyn Mason, vice president. It was gluing the clippings of Masky High into their respective places.

Each year the new class of freshmen are teased and made fun of but nevertheless all freshmen are noted for something. David Grithth freshman secretary-treasurer is the kind that all the Musky gals envy. He has early early bair. IoAnn Paetz, right, president, and Pat Connor vice-president, are two of his many admirers. When he graciously gave his consent, allowing them to play with his early they had the time of their lives.

The Bill Reach trophy got quite a rubdown the night its owner got ambitious. The Musky was none other than John Phillips, football center and basketball student manager. John couldn't see doing the work alone, and so the basketball captain. Take Phelps, right is got roped into helping. Bill Sturms eleft ig we the impression of loating, but his buddies worked under his competent direction. Bill and Jake were football co-captains and guards in basketball.

Big smales have med times. Dodie Danean's reason was that she was Homecoming Queen and Bill Johnson her escort. Her attend onts were of it to right in Pat Zeug and Don Marine. Evelyn Hoopes and Jerry Phelps. Gloria Van Zyle and Gene Mueller, and Mary Ann. Yarek and Bill Sturms. Mainice Ziegenborn and Betty Bartenhagen presided over the Euri Festival given by the homemaking department with the co-operation of the dramatics department.

Musky Album...

In the fall of 1948 nine hundred eight teen agers appeared in Musky halls. There were the hundred seventy-two seniors two hundred three juntors one hundred ninety-eight sophomores and three hundred thirty-five freshmen. By the second semester these numbers had changed to one hundred sixty-two seniors one hundred ninety juniors one hundred seventy eight sophomores, and three hundred six freshmen making a total of eight hundred thirty six students. One hundred sixty-four seniors received diplomas in June. Two of them Clair Reed and Charles Hobart, do not appear in the panels.

There is no doubt that the keenest interest of the majority of these Miskies is in athletics. For this reason, at the conclusion of this album section. Muskies will find individual pictures of the outstanding athletes in three leading sports, toothall, basketball, and baseball. The group least familiar to Muskies undoubtedly is the baseball team. This activity is carried on entirely through the summer months. Last summer there were approximately twenty six boys out for the sport, ten of whom were 1948 graduates. The team played approximately twelve games during the summer with Little Six schools and other schools such as Iowa City. All home games were played on Heinz Field. The boys played in a state sectional tournament at Calamus and were beaten by Iowa City in an extra inning. 1–0. Lefty Schnack coached the boys this year, and he and the team are Loking forward to a more successful season with one year of experience behind them.

Bys shown on the pages of individuals were those most responsible for achieving Musky athletic records in the 1948-1949 year. At the close of the football season Muskies ranked second in the Little Six. They won four games lost two and field one with Mt. Pleasant. Muskies also stood in second place in the Little Six at the end of the basketball season, having won eleven games and lost three in conference play.

Senior Leaders in M.H.S. Activities

Seniors were active members of various activity groups, who will miss them when school begins in September. Chorus claimed twenty-three seniors. Doug McConnaha seemed to be the busiest lad, singing in the mixed quartet, boys' quartet, and madrigal group and serving as soloist and assistant director. Marian Bloom, Jo Ann Brauns, and John Hahn also sang in the madrigal group. Marian sang in the mixed quartet, and John was one of the soloists. Charles Sabbath and Bob Toussaint sang in the boys' quartet. Charles was also a soloist. Gloria Van Zyle, Marilyn Zoller, and Audrey Spratt sang in girls' sextets. Marilyn was also chorus accompanist and a soloist. Jacque Cook served as small group and soloist accompanist . . . Thirteen seniors belonged to the Musky band. Jerry Newton was student director. Janet Rummells, Marjorie Lewis, Gene Baillie, Lawrence Harden, and Mary Alice Hoopes were members of the brass sextet. Irene Schmarje was a member of the woodwind trio, and she and Bob Jones were members of the clarinet quartet . . . Twenty seven seniors participated in dramatics this year. During their high school careers these senior dramatists acted in the following plays: "A Credit to the Family," "The Great American Family," and the senior play, "Dear Ruth." Seniors who acted in "Dear Ruth" were: Dolores Duncan, Victor Finkle, Don Freeman, Marian Isaacs, Don Marine, Jerry Miller, Phyllis McKeown, Donna O'Brien, Lois Safley, and Ray Shoultz. Ann Prochaska was prompter . . . Miss H. Margaret Kemble's stage crew boasted thirteen senior members. Two of them, Virginia Havercamp and Pat Zeug, worked on the stage for two years. Virginia was especially good in helping with the lighting . . . Debaters will lose only two fellow workers this year, Jim McKinney and Jerry

Miller. In his jumor year Jim was chosen top boy debater in the state, and he was also on the state champ debate team. Jerry went out for radio speaking and debate . . . AURORAN staff members are generally extremely conscious of their particular activity during their last semester in school because yearbook work demands much of their spare time. Helen Richman worked on the staff three years. She was a feature writer as a sophomore, assistant editor as a junior, and editor as a senior. Tom Marten was staff photographer in his junior and senior years. Doreen Henke was editor of the editorial page in her senior year, and Mary Boese was a feature writer. George Wecksung was sports editor . . , A Squad basketball will miss five players next year, Bob Herwig, Tommy Thomas, Jerry Grady, Jerry Phelps, and Maynard Brugman, who were all members of the '49 squad. Jerry Phelps was chosen captain . . . Seven seniors, Harlan Phillips, Jerry Grady, Dale Schreurs, Bill Greenwald, Dewayne McIntyre, Bob Herwig, and Maynard Brugman, were members of the baseball team. Harlan was elected captain for 1949 . . . Eighteen husky seniors were members of the football team Bill Sturms and Harlan Phillips were on the first all-conference team, and Jerry Phelps and Harry Lewis were on the second conference team. Bill Johnson and Bob Jones received honorable mention on the conference team. Most of the other players received letters. John Phillips received the Bill Roach award, and Jerry Phelps and Bill Sturms were chosen as captains of the 1948 team. Others on the Musky team were Don Marine, Kenny Phelps, John Hahn, Victor Ziegenhorn, Marvin Hoeksema, Ray Schmelzer, Bill Greenwald, Stanley Zahniser, Don Mills, Lemuel Massey, and Dick Rieke, student manager.

Musky Activities...

Muskies didn't study constantly for they always found time for various activities offered by the school. The Future Farmers of America and their adviser, L. B. Floopes, operated the check room at basketball games. They had a grain show several other contests a Dad's night program, and the Parent Son banquet. They also found time for a few parties M.H.S band directed by Max Smith entertained Muskies during the half times at games. Members of band participated in the massed band at the County Music Festival. In addition, they played host to the Little Six Band. Festival . NFE members received many honors at contests. Early in the season the A Squad debate team brought home two trophies, first place at Coe College and second place at Augustana Thespians found produc ing the I'un Festival a job. They also sponsored noon plays and exchange plays plas some good times. Apprentice Players gave a Christmas play and assisted at various events by ushering and taking tickets . . . GAA. girls took charge of the Homecoming dance, played several basketball games. and went on an vernight trip to Rotary Lodge. Future Homemakers held meetings each month, their programs including skits and panel discussions. A pienic honoring the seniors closed the year for F.H.A. dents in Curia Regia had fun having a Christmas party a tea for former members and a pieme. They too had informative programs at their meet-Musky Library Club performed the duties of cataloging and classifying books. For social times they had a Christmas party and a spring pienic. Hi-Y boys took two educational trips, and the Hi-Y basketball team won the southeastern lowa basketball tournament. Hi-Tri girls sponsored a Sock Hop, a tot party, and later a parent-youth clinic in conjunction with Hi Y — Amicae otheers went to the Southwest District Conference at Ottumwa. The club had a Christmas party for tots, and besides this they had a skating party . . MH.S chorus presented the Messiah participated in the County Music Festival and Little Six Music Festival and presented the musical comedy. In Old Vienna.' The small groups sang for numerous business and professional club programs during the year.

Musky Supporters...

Attroux's staff members appreciate the fact that the merchants of Muscatine have supported their publications through farty two years of good times and bad times. Many of these merchants have a long record of loval support through advertising in Musky yearbooks, monthly magazines, and newspapers. This year the merchants have provided thirty per cent of the total cost of the book through their advertising.

Some of the names in this 1949 advertising section appear in the early years. In the first yearbook, published in 1908, are advertisements of Wilson's Shee Store and Battersen's Department Store. In 1909 appear the first ads of McColm's Roach and Musser, and Huttig's. The 1910 yearbook adds W', G. Block Coal Co. Umscheid and Asthalter, G. A. Chaudom, S. G. and P. Stein Furniture Company, and Gerrie Kranz Florist. Titus Loan and Investment Company and Moore and Meerdink join the rank in 1911. I. E. Kranz in 1912, and Chocolate Shop, Muscatine Journal, and Luellen Cleaners in 1914.

Readers may glean other interesting data from these ads. For instance one might wonder it Batters in s ad in 1910. Right at the Switch - referred to the street car tracks. McColm's in 1909 advertised. Beautiful dainty waists. Wilson's in 1919 offered for sale. White kid Colonials, full French carved heels, beaded buckle, long vamp, all sizes? Another advertisement which gives evidence of changing times was that of Moore and Meerdink's in 1914 for blue serge suits for graduation.

Muskies pocketbooks must have been in much different circumstances in the old days. In 1909 the Bijou Theater effered an entire change of program every night for five cents, and the 1912 yearbook sold for twenty five cents.

Through the years new advertisers have added their support to the Attroryx publications. Members of the 1949 Attroryx staff wish to express gratitude for the interest which their merchant friends new and old have evidenced in their project.
